Dress and Etiquette

By serving in the Ministries of Lector and EMHC, you place yourself in view of the public. Your actions reflect upon the image of the Church. Please dress within the expectations and dignity of the ministry. It is equally important to remember that Parishioners will hold you and the Church to a higher standard. They will base their opinions of our Church by how they witness your actions, both outside of Church as well as during Mass. It is imperative to practice Christian virtues at all times, and remain in good standing as a Roman Catholic.

Proper attire is semi-formal and modest at best - not casual. Slacks and a sport coat, suits, long/short sleeve shirt with tie etc. are all appropriate for Gentlemen. No shorts, cut-offs, sneakers, flip-flops, jeans etc. Shirts should not be left unbuttoned any lower than the second button (one down from the neck/tie button). Slacks are also appropriate for Ladies. No Capri's, no Spandex, and no jeans of any color please. No mini-skirts. Please make sure the length of the dress properly covers the upper legs. Shoulders exposed by tank top, tube-top or strapless, are not appropriate. A sweater or shawl should be worn if the shirt, blouse, or dress (sundress) does not completely cover the shoulders. As Extraordinary Ministers and Lectors, we represent the office of those ordained and must therefore dress in accordance with its dignity.

- Please sign the schedule inside the confessional, as a courtesy, 10 minutes prior to Mass. This is to assure that all servers are present. Please do not congregate, talking outside the door, as this can be disruptive to those praying before Mass. Please be inside the confessional and ready for the blessing 10 minutes before Mass is to start. Do not wait until you see the Celebrant coming from the sacristy because they do not always come from there.
- If you cannot serve your scheduled Mass, please find a replacement, and correct the schedule by listing who is to serve in your place.
- Lectors are expected to sit on the Altar between readings. Proper etiquette is for the feet to be flat on the floor and not one leg crossed over the other. Hands are best located on your knees while sitting on the Altar to avoid distracting movement.
- EMs are to approach the Altar when the celebrating Priest lifts the Chalice to drink from it. If other EMs are coming from the back pews, please pause at the first pew in front of the Altar and approach the Altar as ONE GROUP.
- If there is any remaining blood in the cup after all have received, you must consume the remaining Precious Blood in place or ask the last Usher or recipient to finish it. Do not walk to the credence table with a cup retaining precious Blood.
